IT'S RIGHTLY SAID "NOT ALL HEROES WEAR CAPES".

Buying your clothes is the very last step in a very long journey. There is an invisible workforce behind every piece of clothing, without whom the industry won't exist - THE REAL HEROES behind every garment you adorn yourself in, every piece that scores you compliments and every cloth that makes you look beautiful.

It's not always a work of one person, it's a TEAM that joins together to create something beautiful. The efforts, the hard work each creator puts in behind the construction of the garment, makes the end result worthy of multiple applaunds. From the sketch artist to the handwork karigars and the stitching masters, each brain deserves its fair share of acknowledgement.

We dedicate the collection to these artisans, without whose efforts, the beauty of the collection would have subsided.
