A beautiful

dress may look beautiful on a hanger, but that means nothing. It must be seen on the shoulders, with the movement of the arms, the legs, and the waist.

But

it was fantasy, and she knew it. It was her fantasy, and the fantasy of everyone else who would look at her and at her pictures; and it would stop being real the moment the man with the camera stopped clicking.

Over

the years I have learned that what is important in a dress is the woman who is wearing it.

Confidence is always the best accessory. Own the moment. Own your space.

While

clothes may not make the woman, they certainly have a strong effect on her self-confidence, which, I believe, does make the woman.
