Himani

A woman with long dark hair is sitting on the ground, leaning against the thick trunk of a large tree. She is wearing a light blue, long-sleeved, patterned dress with a geometric and floral design. Her hands are clasped in her lap, and she is wearing light blue high-heeled sandals. The background is a natural, outdoor setting with dry grass and other trees, suggesting a forest or park. The lighting is warm, indicating it might be late afternoon or early morning.
